ORDER:

In the G.O. 1st cited read above, the Government have created a new department viz "Skill Development, Entrepreneurship and Innovation".

2. In the G.O. 2nd read above the erstwhile Employment Generation & Marketing Mission (EGMM) has been brought under the control of Skill Development, Entrepreneurship and Innovation Department from the Rural Development Department and reconstituted as "Society for Employment Generation and Enterprise Development in Andhra Pradesh" (SEEDAP), after the bifurcation of the state of Andhra Pradesh.

3. Government of India has formulated a training programme for Rural Youth viz, "Deen Dayal Upadhyay Grameen Kaushalya Yojana" (DDU – GKY) and as per the said scheme, Government of India will be releasing 75% of the total project cost and 25% to be met from the respective states.

4. This scheme was originally under consideration to the Employment Generation & Marketing Mission (EGMM) prior to the bifurcation of the state, which is in the X schedule of Andhra Pradesh Reorganization Act of 2014. Since, "Society for Employment Generation and Enterprise Development in Andhra Pradesh" (SEEDAP) is newly formed vide G.O. 2nd read above, the placement linked training programme for Rural youth in 13 districts of Andhra Pradesh under Deen Dayal Upadhyay Grameen Kaushalya Yojana (DDU – GKY) is entrusted to "Society for Employment Generation and Enterprise Development in Andhra Pradesh" (SEEDAP) for implementing the project.

5. The Joint Chief Executive Officer, Employment Generation & Marketing Mission (EGMM), Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad shall take further necessary action in the matter.
